Serving on the City Council or on one of our Commissions is a privilege. Those who serve should have only the City's interests in mind and should serve only one master: the citizens of Beverly Hills. Serving in anticipation of a future payday based on influence peddling must be stopped. I want the toughest ethics law possible in our City, and I am determined to fight for them if given a second term by the residents.